New Vandeville Feature.

The Grand will use a new moving picture machine called the biascope this year. The vitascope, which marked the close of shows last year, did not give the most satisfactory results, in that the pictures account of defects in films. All these disadvantages, it is claimed by Manager Zeigler, are overcome by the new biascope, It is said also that a wider range of more interesting pictures can be shown by the new machine. Iowa Man Loses His Money.

W. O. Phillips, who gives his residence as Afton, Ia., arrived in town yesterday morning on his way to Vevay, Ind. He was ill. Shortly after getting off the train Phil- | adults lips was met at the station by an affable stranger, who said he was going to Vevay. Phillips and the stranger walked several blocks, commenting on the improvements made recently in Indianapolis. They then returned to the station and were met by a man wearing a badge of the Union Station baggage room. The latter walked up to the pair and asked which was Mr. Smooth. Smooth introduced himself and the agent said in a brisk manner that baggage belonging to him was in the room with $15.50 charges on it. Smooth sald he knew it, but did not have the money. The pretended agent said he would have to sell the baggage if the money was not forthcoming While the three stood looking at one another Smooth broke the silence by asking Mr. Phillips for the sum, saying that as soon as they got on the train he would return the money. Phillips, without questioning, pulled out a roll of bills and hand-Smooth $15.50. The agent and Smooth departed, promising to return in a short time. Phillips waited quite a while, but in vain. Then he made his loss known to

GROCERS' PICNIC

EVENT MARRED TO SOME EXTENT BY THE PRESENCE OF ROWDIES.

Gambling Devices and Beer Under the Grand Stand-A Big Crowd and Amusing Contests.

The annual picnic of the Retail Grocers' Association at the State fair grounds yesterday afternoon was attended by between 4,000 and 5,000 people, and the entire programme was successfully carried out. The pleasure of the outing, however, was marred by a class of individuals who usually take advantage of such events to incite and participate in disorderly conduct. All sorts of gambling schemes were conducted underneath the ampitheater, and beer was freely dispensed. Late in the afternoon, when the liquor had begun to work on the minds of the rowdies present, there were occasional distorders and the police were kept busy to prevent serious encounters. Several members of the assogambling privileges had been let, saying the board of directors had passed a resolution against gambling.

The events on the programme started off promptly at 1:30 in the afternoon, and the prizes were won as follows: Climbing greased pole: Roy Heil, 812 East

St. Clair street. Two-hundred-foot race, for boys under twelve: Sam Johnson. One-hundred-foot race, for girls under twelve: Minnie Freund, South East street. Seventy-five-foot race, for women: Miss Clara Demarce, 2439 Hovey avenue. One-quarter-mile foot race, for grocery clerks: Mr. Berry, 25 East North street. Foot race, for children under six: Onehalf pound of candy given to each contest-Women throwing baseball: Miss Miller, 1321 Silver avenue. Potato race, for city salesmen: George Buschmann, Fort Wayne avenue. String contest, for women: Miss Miller, 1321 Silver avenue. Retail grocers' and butchers' clerks' onemile bicycle race: J. C. Carsons, 2230 Park Two-mile bicycle race, open to all: Walter

P. Schoffield, 2817 Sangster avenue. Five-mile motorcycle race: Brandt, 1028 Southeastern avenue, won; R. B. Miles, 220 South Summit street, second; Bert Corbett, 492 East Washington street, One-mile grocers' and butchers' trotting race: H. Shlender, Fort Wayne avenue. One-mile grocers' and butchers' pacing race: Ed Fielder, Noble and New York streets. One-mile city salesmen's trotting race: deorge Buschmann. One-mile city salesmen's pacing race: E.

Motorcycle and horse race: Run by Lew Tulley's horse and Henry Brandt, called Lew Shank acted as starter and commanded all the participants in the contests from his position in the judges' stand to obey the rules and follow the race track. All of the contests were amusing. The string contest between a dozen or more women was a special feature. They lined up in front of the grand stand each with a string in her mouth with a gumdrop dangling at the end and began to chew on the string at the word given by Shank. The women who first got the candy in her mouth won the prize. The horse races also were amusing features, many of the anino time was kept.

mals being taken from the delivery wagons and rigged out with old-style sulkies or perhaps one of the modern patterns. There were some good horses in the races, but Ed Fielder and Lew Tulley, who had good horses in one of the races, became involved in a quarrel over the race, which finally ended by the police taking them in custody after they had taken a number of vicious punches at each other. Fielder complained that Tulley crowded him in trying to "get Tulley admitted that he crowded Fielder, but said he did not touch him and had not violated the rules of racing. However, Fielder won the race. The men decided to settle the controversy by putting up a side bet and running another race, and while talking over this got into a fight. There was such a crowd on the track by this time that the police had to draw their clubs and disperse it. A closing feature was a balloon ascension with a bicycle attachment on the para-

Children at Angola. Monday morning a large number of children, ready for a two weeks' outing, gathered at the Union Station. It was one of the many crowds which have been sent out during the past three summers by the Children's Outing Organization, conducted by the young people's societies of the city churches. Mr. Hoff, who superintends this work, had chartered a car to take the children to Angola, the beautiful county seat of Steuben county.

It was a long journey, but what a great event for some of the little ones! The Angola Band, which was awaiting the arrival of the train, began to play as the train slowed up and then it seemed that the entire place had turned out to welcome the children. Headed by the band the children formed in procession and marched to the M. E. Church, where the pastor, the Rev. A. G. Neal, assisted Mr. Hoff in assigning the little ones to different homes. Those who were in charge of the excursion will not soon forget the hospitality and kindness of the people of Angola. A great many more children would have been gladly accommodated. After the children were all provided for the adult members of the party were entertained by the Rev. Neal and by Mrs. S. E. Arnold. A more delightful place for the children has never been opened to the organization.

Nancy Hanks Monument.

Charles Denby, of Evansville, former minister to China, has informed the directors of the Nancy Hanks Lincoln Monument Association that he will be unable to deliver the principal address at the dedication on Oct. 1. The association has under consideration several other noted speakers. There is a possibility that the dedication may not take place on Oct. 1, since it is said that the monument commissioners have not complied with a reservation made in the deed by the commissioners of Spencer county that the land should be converted into a park and fenced in. A dispatch from Evansville says that the County Commissioners object to the dedication on Oct. 1 unless the association complies with the agreement.

Normal School, talked to the Marion

County Teachers' Institute yesterday on the value of suggestions as to literary reading. He pointed out many ways by which teachers could inspire intelligent reading on the part of pupils. Dr. D. W. Dennis, of Earlham College, talked of the importance of teaching animal and plant life to children. These subjects had such a close relation to advancing civilization and higher life that the children enculd be helped to thoroughly understand them He also warned the teachers that the children were closer to nature than adults and that out of the whims of childhood on his way to see a sister who is seriously developed the great characteristics of the similated and the body receives strength in the only way in which strength can be given-by the nutrition derived from digested and assimilated food.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 12051/2 Mifflin Street. Huntingdon, Pa. *I was taken with what our physicians here said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote to you and you sent me a question blank to fill out. and I did so, and you then advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped being cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good." Dr. Pierte's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent free on receipt of stamps to cover expense of mailing only. Twenty-one one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
